Worship with Ivan Parker
Closing Rev. Matt Albritton

Ivan was saved at age 9 in his daddy's church in Sanford, TN when an evangelist preached a fiery sermon on the rapture of the church and heaven. "I remember that night well," he said. "I was sitting on the back row with all my friends. When the invitation was given, I couldn't get to the altar fast enough. My mom and dad had always told me that whenever it came to salvation, I couldn't get to heaven on their experience—I had to have my own."

One of the greatest ministry opportunities to come Ivan's way is being a part of most of the Gaither Homecoming Videos and singing in 70 to 80 Gaither Concerts a year, which average around 15,000 attendees each, in addition to his own solo schedule. In all, his calendar shows an average of 200 performances a year. One of the highlights of his ministry in 2002 was when he stepped on stage at Carnegie Hall and sang not "On the wings of a snow white dove" but "God Bless the USA."

Ivan and his wife Teresa reside in Nashville, Tennessee. They have two sons, Ryan and Josh.
