First Methodist Church is offering a beginning sewing class starting THIS Wednesday night, June 12th at 6 p.m. in the FLC taught by Bonnie Hall. This class will be open to all from ages 12 and older. This will be a wonderful opportunity to discover your talent or interest in this creative art form.

Or maybe you only need to learn how to sew on a button or hem a garment. The first night will be more information about the class, your skills and desires, and organization. The classes will include organizing time and space, supplies and equipment, fabrics, how to use and care for a sewing machine, hand sewing, studying a pattern, fitting a pattern, cutting out a pattern and putting it together. Students will be responsible to provide their own equipment and supplies. See you Wednesday!

 REMINDER—JUNE 15 is the deadline to apply for the FMCW Scholarship.

We are looking forward to Father’s Day next Sunday, June 16. If you are able to do so, we would love to have your father or father figure join us in worship. We will honor and celebrate each one present with a small token of appreciation.
